TEASER

* Ben, Gwen, and Kevin are driving down the street at night, speaking the usual banter between themselves.

* A bright light flashes, in front of the kids' car, forming a medium-sized METALLIC CUBE, which has a glowing green sphere in its center.

* The Car screeches to a stop in front of the cube. The kids get out of the car.

* Ben, followed by Gwen and Kevin, approaches the cube, reaching out to touch it.

* As Ben touches the cube, it shakes, and in bounces around. Ben, Gwen, and Kevin step backwards.

* In a loud, clunky Transformer-like fashion, the box changes shape.

* The kids are shocked as the box has transformed into a metallic/riveted robotic version of Ben (green arms, silver face, metal "hair" like Ben's, etc.).

* Smash to Titles.

ACT I

* Back on the Robot-Ben. The Kids are shocked. "Whoa," Ben says. "Whoa," the Robot repeats.

* Ben tries talking to the robot for a second, but the robot only repeats everything he says. "I don't sound like that!" Ben argues. The robot repeats it.

* Kevin steps up to check out the robot. He sees financial potential in the object.

* The Robot Transforms in its kind of clunky (just not fluid) way to look like Kevin. "Hey! Check it out! It changed to the best looking one of us!" Kevin says. The robot repeats it.

* A little more back and forth of repeating what Kevin says. Kevin gets more and more annoyed.

* Kevin reaches his limit of annoyance with the Robot-Kevin's repetition. "Shut up!" Kevin yells and puts his hand over the robot's mouth.

* The Robot, with great (though unintentional) force, slaps his hand on Kevin's mouth.

* Kevin is sent flying backwards and to the ground by the Robot's forceful shove in the face.

* The Robot transforms back into Ben.

- * Ben, seeing his friend attacked by the Robot, hits the Omnitrix and transforms into Humungousaur.
- * Humungousaur charges toward the Robot.
- * The Robot hits his wrist, imitating the Omnitrix, and in his clunky way, transforms into a robotic version of Humungousaur – a MechaHumungousaur.
- * The two gigantic creatures battle. MechaHumungousaur throws Humungousaur to the ground hard.
- * Kevin leaps to his feet and changes his arm into a large mallet.
- * MechaHumungousaur turns to see Kevin charging towards him.
- * Kevin SMASHES MechaHumungousaur with his mallet arm. The Robot is broken into a million pieces.
- * Standing in the rubble, Kevin boasts in his accomplishment of destroying the monster. The glowing sphere from the box is among the rubble.
- *The broken pieces of the robot stir on the ground, and then fly together in a reformed Robot version of Kevin with the mallet arm.
- * The Robot-Kevin swings the mallet arm at Kevin, who dives out of the way.
- * Ben turns into Spidermonkey. He shoots a web at the Robot, stopping it from hitting Kevin.
- * The Robot-Kevin transforms into a Robot-Spidermonkey. It cuts through the web, and shoots a solid, metal web/net/chain link fence at Ben/Spidermonkey.
- * Ben transforms back to himself, and throws the metal fence off. He and Kevin are angry and more aggressive.
- *Gwen shoots energy discs at the Robot Spidermonkey.
- * As the energy discs hit the robot Spidermonkey, it clunkily transforms into a robot-Gwen and throws metal discs at her.
- * Ben, Kevin, and Gwen all dodge the discs. “Oh, that’s it!” Kevin yells, ready to totally demolish the robot once and for all.
- * Gwen holds Kevin back. “It’s copying what we do. We showed it we wanted to fight, so it copied us. We need to do something different.”
- * Gwen slowly approaches the Robot-Gwen. Gwen speaks slowly, specifically to it.
- * Gwen calmly starts meditating. The Robot-Gwen imitates the meditation.

* Peace has returned to the street. Ben apologizes to the Robot for attacking it. "Just stay calm," Ben says.

* The Robot transforms into Ben again, "Just stay calm."

* Suddenly, the familiar spaceship of the Vreedle Brothers lands directly in front of the kids and the Robot-Ben.

* The Vreedle Brothers approach from their spaceship, pointing a blaster at the kids and the Robot. "You've got something that belongs to us."

ACT II

* Octagon and Rhomboid hold blaster on kids and Robot. Robot says, "Just stay calm."

* Vreedles tell tale of Robot's origin – it is a very valuable weapon. They will get millions for it. It's very rare, and they found it because of low-level radiation it was putting off from its glowing power source. And they've come to take it.

* Ben, Kevin, and Gwen realize they can't let the Vreedles take it, as it's too dangerous.

* Ben turns into Swampfire and throws fire at the Vreedles. "We can't let you take it!"

* The Vreedles return fire.

*The Robot transforms in its clunky way, into Robot-Swampfire, shooting metal fire-like balls at Ben.

* The Vreedles celebrate that the Robot is helping them.

* The Robot transforms into a half-Ben/half-Vreedle brother thing. It keeps shooting metal balls at the kids.

* Kevin tries racing at the Robot, his hand a mallet again. The half-Ben/half-Vreedle Robot transforms his hand into a mallet, too.

* The Vreedles blast Kevin sending him backwards.

* Gwen fires her energy discs while Ben shoots fire at both the Vreedles and the Robot.

* The Vreedles are near the Robot. They are walking backwards, causing the robot to imitate them, toward their spaceship. They keep blasting the kids. The Robot also is firing off his metal discs and "fire" balls.

* Ben and Kevin race toward the ship as the Vreedles and the Robot get on board.

* The Vreedles' ship closes its hatch, and flies away at an extreme speed.

* Ben, Gwen, and Kevin are mad they lost, watching the ship leave.

- * Ben points out that at least they don't have to worry about the Robot anymore.
- * TIME CUT – day – The kids are at Mr. Smoothie's. They are still licking their wounds from the battle.
- * Outside the restaurant, the Vreedles' ship lands suddenly.
- * Ben, Gwen, and Kevin race outside to see why the Vreedles are back.
- * The hatch opens and the Vreedles brothers come down, rambling about how they made a mistake. "We don't want it. It's your problem now!"
- * The kids are confused, and Vreedles explain, "We, um, blew up another ship, and the Robot kinda took it wrong."
- * The Robot, as MechaHumungousaur, lumbers down the ramp from the Vreedles ship. He has two gigantic cannons in his hands.
- * Boyd looks at the cannons, and says, "He learned to destroy things."
- * MechaHumungousaur fires off one of his cannons at Mr. Smoothies, blowing it up!
- * The Vreedles race back on to their ship and fly away.
- * The MechaHumungousaur fires off another blast from his Cannon at the Vreedles ship as it flies away, blowing it up, too. "Just stay calm," the Robot says.

ACT III

- * The Robot transforms into an amalgamation of all the characters thus far – Ben, Gwen, Kevin, the Vreedles, MechaHumungousaur, etc.
- * The Robot blasts another nearby building away.
- * Ben turns into Humungousaur, Kevin has mallets on both hands, and Gwen is poised to strike with her energy blasts.
- * Gwen says that the Robot imitates, and that since it's learned to destroy things, it's now imitating the Vreedles and everyone is in danger.
- * Kevin points out that the Robot regenerates. "How can we stop it?"
- * Ben thinks that if they can get the power source and destroy that, they'll be able to stop the Robot.
- * Ben races toward the Robot.
- * Ben as Humungousaur and the Robot as the amalgamation of the others wrestle like Godzilla and MechaGodzilla. The Robot seems to be getting the upper hand as it slowly pushes Humungousaur toward the ground.
- * Gwen blasts a bunch of energy discs at the Robot.

- * The discs distract the Robot from Ben. The Robot whips off some metal discs at Gwen.
- * Gwen protects herself with a force field.
- * Ben is able to flip the distracted Robot over to the ground.
- * Kevin pounces on the Robot, and repeatedly pounds away with his mallet hands. Debris is flying everywhere.
- * Gwen fires off a bunch of energy attacks while Kevin smashes away on the fallen Robot.
- * Humungousaur approaches as the other two kids work to smash the Robot into a million pieces. Humungousaur Pounds into the center of the Robot and pulls out the glowing power source.
- * Humungousaur sets the glowing power source down in the middle of the street in front of some burning buildings.
- * Humungousaur brings his foot up to stomp the power source.
- * Suddenly, a glowing blue female figure appears in the air above the power source, screaming "No! Don't destroy that!"
- * Humungousaur transforms to Ben, and is joined by Kevin and Gwen, staring up at the blue ethereal woman.
- * The Ethereal Woman speaks, stating that the Robot and its power source is her daughter's favorite toy. "We were showing her the Multiverse, and she dropped it. We've been looking everywhere for it! We didn't think it would end up in this primitive dimension!"
- * The blue ethereal woman combines the power source with the debris from the fight. It reforms as the cube it started as. "You should be more careful. This toy clearly says it's not for children under 3,000,000 years of age!"
- * The kids watch in awe as the blue woman and the cube disappears into its home dimension.
- * "What did she mean primitive?" Kevin asks, insulted, "I'll show her!" Ben mocks him for proving her point.
